

You Inc.

“I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in His word I do hope.”

Psalm 130:5

You are the CEO of You inc. You decide who does what and who goes where. Because of your resources and placement in life, there is very little that you don't have the ability to decide. Where will I live? What will I do with my time? Who will I marry? Will I have children?

The world has made it to the point where you can decide almost anything. That is a very scary place to be. Because when you decide everything, that means that everything depends upon you! Where you will live and security depends upon your ability to plan and pay for it. What you will do with your free time means you will have to constantly come up with stuff for 30, 40, 50 years to keep your attention and give your life some type of meaning. Who will you marry and will you have children will open up various more questions that will depend upon your experiences, resources and relationships to hopefully make it a success. That's a lot to carry on your shoulders. It's actually impossible to be successful at that...unless you're God.

That's the good thing. You were never meant to choose and make all that stuff happen. You have a Creator who loves you and cares for you and has already thought out all the days of your life and written them in a book (Psalms 139). You have a loving Heavenly Father who not only is ready and willing to help you but already has the plans and blueprint for best case scenario in your life. BUT the fact remains that you are still...CEO of You Inc. Which means that you have to decide to add God into your life. You still have to ask Him for help, and then listen and obey.

Jesus said when the Son of Man returns, will He find faith on the Earth (Luke 18:8). The reality is that you could seemingly live some type of life here on Earth without Christ...but I wouldn't suggest it at all. I have heard it said, “If you are the smartest person in the room...you are in the wrong room.” Add to the fact that without Christ, you have absolutely no chance of making it to Heaven. You are not enough because you were never made to be enough. You are incomplete without God but He is more than enough for you!

P2R (Point 2 Remember): You decide how much of God you want in your life
