

Y.R.P. – Passion for the Word

⁷So you are no longer a slave, but God's child; and since you are his child, God has made you also an heir. - Galatians 4:7

As a basketball and sports fan, this is a great time of the year! March Madness!!!! Three weekends of games being played that have the possibility to change the lives of players and coaches. Players make plays, but all teams need a great coach to make things easier for any good athlete. A good coach, can create strategy, set the tempo, design plays to get easier shots or make the appropriate defensive sets. My point is that each game is important and every play and decision matters for both the coaches and players. We don't always realize that everyday we are in the middle of March Madness and the game is on the line. Our decisions/play affect the future and we have the greatest coach of all time at our disposal. And just like a great pro must love not just playing, but studying the game through the playbook, film & etc., we must also love to study the playbook of life. The word of God.

Psalm 19^[a]

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

¹The heavens declare the glory of God;
the skies proclaim the work of his hands.

- Just looking at nature, we can see how perfect God is

⁷The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul.

The statutes of the LORD are trustworthy,
making wise the simple.

⁸The precepts of the LORD are right,
giving joy to the heart.

The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes.
